By-Laws for Downtown Farmers' Market of Manhattan, Inc.

Article I – Name

The name of this organization shall be Downtown Farmers' Market of Manhattan, Inc. d/b/a as Manhattan Farmers' Market. (Hereafter referred to as "Market" or "the Market".)

Article II – Object

The Market exists to allow local business entrepreneurs a fair and equitable means of supplying produce and goods to the public in Manhattan, Kansas and surrounding area. The current market year shall be April 1 to March 31 for membership.

Art III – Members

Section 1: Eligibility of Membership

Eligibility of Membership shall be open to anyone engaged in supplying food items including: homegrown fruits, vegetables, edible grains, nuts, berries, honey, baked goods, farm fresh eggs, slaughtered meats (refrigerated, frozen, or dried); non-food items including: flowers, garden products of organic nature, items used in the garden, farm, or yard; craft items including: hand made or non-mass produced items; and those items deemed appropriate by the Board members. Those items previously approved by the Board and food items under the jurisdiction of the Riley County Health Department (2330 Tecumseh, Manhattan, KS 66502, 785-776-4779) may be prohibited by a majority vote of the membership. Franchised business activities are prohibited from participating in Market.

Section 2: Classes of Membership

All business entrepreneurs shall register with the Secretary/Treasurer of the organization by completing the online registration form on the website (<https://manhattanfarmersmarket.org>), prior to doing business. Registration shall consist of name, address, telephone number, other information and, if applicable, state sales tax number.

A. A Member (or represented member); is a business which has registered with the Secretary/Treasurer, and paid annual dues to be a member of the Market. New members must attend eight markets then pay the membership fee during the current market year. As such they will be considered for quorum in conducting business, entitled to vote during business meetings, entitled to reserve stall space, and to serve as a board member or officer upon election. One Member = One vote = One representative to serve in office or on committee. For membership renewal the member must pay membership fee and attend eight times during the current market year. Voting rights shall be retained until the end of the market season, but shall be lost along with membership should the member fail to attend the required eight times.

B. Associate Member; a business that has registered with the Secretary/Treasurer but has not met membership requirements, shall be an associate member, entitled to sell at market. Associate members may attend meetings, enter into discussion, but may not vote or make motions, hold office, or be counted in quorum.

Section 3: Dues and Fees

A. Membership Dues - Annual Ten dollar ($10) dues shall be paid to be a member of the Market. These dues shall be paid on or before market opening day or when membership requirements are met.

B. Stall Fee - All members and associate members shall pay a "stall fee" to obtain space to sell at market. This fee is due each day of sale and will be paid at the information booth prior to vendors setting up their stall.

C. Permanent Reserved Stall Fee (April 15 to October 31)– An annual Five dollar ($5.00) fee shall be paid per stall prior to Market opening to reserve stall space. If you prepay for your stall then the $5 reserve fee is waived. Stall space shall be available to members (excluding associate members) in accordance with the following guidelines:

1. Members who have attended 25 markets in the previous year may elect to re-reserve their previous year's stall space.
2. All other members are prioritized by: (1) attendance, (2) sales of (a) produce (b) non-produce, (3) lot

Section 4 – Disciplinary Procedures

A. Authority – The Board of Directors shall have the authority to enforce all rules of the Market. Rulings will require 2/3 majority of a quorum of the Board of Directors.

B. Eligibility – All business entrepreneurs and representatives are subject to all market rules. Members that fail to adhere to these rules shall be subject to disciplinary action as determined by the voting membership, and will be penalized according to established policy. Associate members who fail to adhere to these rules will be barred from further sales until grievance hearings can be held.

C. Grievance – Business entrepreneurs may appeal disciplinary decisions of the Market Management Committee to the Board of Directors in writing within seven days. The results of the Board of Directors hearing will be returned to the appellant within seven days.

Section 5 – Resignation

Any member may resign from Market. Officers and committee chairmen who resign must insure that all files, documents, property, and information belonging to the Market is returned to the President or Board of Directors within seven days.

Section 6 – Grandfather Clause

Any business entity that was a member prior to the adoption of these By-laws shall remain members in good standing. Should the business entity decide to divide, the new subsidiary must meet new member requirements to become a member. Upon adoption, members shall conform to membership requirements as specified in these By-laws.

Article IV – Officers of Downtown Farmers’ Market, Inc.

Section 1 – Officers

The officers shall be President, Vice-President, Secretary/Treasurer, and four (4) Board members.

Section 2 – Officer Responsibilities

A. President – The President fulfills the role of chief executive. He/She sets goals, presides at business meetings, and performs those administrative duties as assigned by the By-laws, Standing Rules, membership motions, and parliamentary guide. 15. Giving official reports at meetings.
16. Preparing an annual audit report.
17. Keeping all individual sales tax records as confidential.
18. File corporate business report for Kansas Secretary of State in November.
19. Prepare and submit sales tax to Kansas Department of Revenue quarterly and submit annual vendor list to sales tax enforcement office in November.
20. Obtain annual liability insurance for the market.
21. Provide a monthly status report of the financial statement.

D. Board of Directors – The Board of Directors serves as the directing body for the Market. The board provides guidance to the President and conducts the organization’s business between regular business meetings.

Section 3 – Election of Officers and Board Members

Officers and Board members shall be nominated at the spring business meeting. Election shall be by secret ballot. Only members may vote. The officers and board members shall be elected to two-year terms. The President, Vice-President, and two Board members shall be elected during a given market season. The Secretary/Treasurer and the remaining two Board members shall be elected during the following market season. Elections shall occur during the annual spring meeting; terms of office shall begin at the conclusion of the annual spring meeting.

Section 4 – Limitations

- A. Members may hold only one officer per term.
- B. There shall be no spousal relationship or immediate family relationship between the President, Vice-President, and the Secretary/Treasurer.
- C. There shall be no spousal relationship between board members.

Section 5 – Vacancies

If the office of President is vacant, the Vice-President shall fill the position. All other vacancies will be filled by special election of the membership at a meeting called by the Board of Directors.

Section 6 – Removal from Office

Officers and Board Members may be removed from office for cause by failing to perform their responsibilities and for felonious violation of public law. A two thirds (2/3) vote of the membership is required for removal from office for felonious public law violation.

Section 7 – Other Duties

Officers and Board of Directors shall perform the duties assigned to them in the By-laws, Standing Rules, motions of the membership, and parliamentary authority adopted by the organization.

Article V - Meetings

Section 1 – Regular Meetings

The Market shall conduct two (2) regular business meetings per year. Email list will be obtained from the online registration.

A. The Fall Meeting shall be held the third (3rd) Tuesday of November. The purpose of this meeting shall be to conduct necessary business, to audit the organizational treasury records, and receive reports from standing committees. Notification for the fall meeting must be mailed or emailed to the members and associate members at least fourteen (14) days prior to the meeting date.

B. The Spring Meeting shall be held the second (2nd) Tuesday of March, before the beginning of market season. The purpose of this meeting shall be to conduct necessary business prior to market season, elect officers and board members, and appoint chairmen for standing committees. Notification for the spring meeting must be mailed to the members and associate members at least fourteen (14) days prior to the meeting date.

Section 2 – Special Meetings

The President may call a special meeting or five (5) members submitting a written request to the Secretary/Treasurer may call a special meeting. Notice of a special meeting must be mailed or emailed to the membership at least seven (7) days prior the meeting date, except for matters of disciplinary business.
